250,000 Men Will Rally in Washington, DC

By Gordon James Klingenschmitt

Christian men, block out your calendars on Saturday October 6th 2007, (from 11am to 5pm), to gather at the Washington Monument in DC, and join 250,000 of your brothers to pray for America. Bring your church bus, and fill it with men.

The “Stand in the Gap 2007” rally promises to be the largest gathering of Christian men since the “million dad march” hosted ten years ago by Promise Keepers.

The chairman of Stand in the Gap 2007, the Reverend Marty Granger, says teen-agers, adults, middle-aged men and the elderly will gather before God in response to Psalm 145:4: “One generation will commend your works to another; they will tell of your mighty acts.” He hopes future men’s gatherings will be held in the seventh year of every decade.

The host organization for this decade’s gathering is NCMM, the 110-member National Coalition of Men’s Ministries (<http://www.ncmm.org/>), representing every major Christian ministry to men in America.

The rally will open with a trumpet ensemble “call to worship” potentially 1,000 men large, and organizers are now recruiting trumpeters to join this ensemble, here

The cost to attend the rally is free! But the memory of standing in DC with hundreds of thousands of brothers to pray for America will be priceless.

Pastors, Men's Group Leaders, and Church Bus Drivers are invited to join a weekly conference call, every Thursday at 7am EST from now until the rally, just call (605) 772-3400 and enter access code: 541388797#. If that line is busy, you can listen at (605) 772-3500, access code: 422047726#.

Bring your church busses, make your hotel reservations now, and prepare to fast and pray that God will forgive our nation, renew our devotion, and send a revival that honors Jesus Christ. Bring your sons. Bring your fathers. Bring your Christian brothers. Register today at <http://www.standinthegap2007.org/>). And I will see all of you there, God willing, in Jesus name.
