(Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, August 31, 2007) Delegates for the Values Voter Straw Poll, that will be conducted at the Values Voter Presidential Debate on September 17, have been selected by pro-family leaders such as Phyllis Schlafly, President of Eagle Forum, Don Wildmon Chairman of the American Family Association, Paul Weyrich, President of the Free Congress Foundation, Judge Roy Moore, Chairman of the Foundation for Moral Law, Rabbi Aryea Spero, of the Jewish Action Alliance, and Chaplain Gordon James Klingenschmitt, who fought for the right of Military Chaplains to pray in Jesus name.

"Unlike other straw polls where candidates have bussed in supporters or paid for their tickets, the Values Voter Straw poll conducted at this Presidential debate promises results consistent with the largest voting block in America—the Values Voter," said Mat Staver, Chairman of Liberty Counsel and member of the host committee. "This will be the most important straw poll yet."

"I'm proud to be a part of this historic debate," said Rabbi Aryea Spero, of the Jewish Action Alliance, "the social, moral, and cultural issues are of the utmost importance for the country's survival. And we are the group that is willing to frame this presidential contest accordingly."

It will be broadcast live on Sky Angel, and rebroadcast on the Inspiration (INSP) Network, the
